
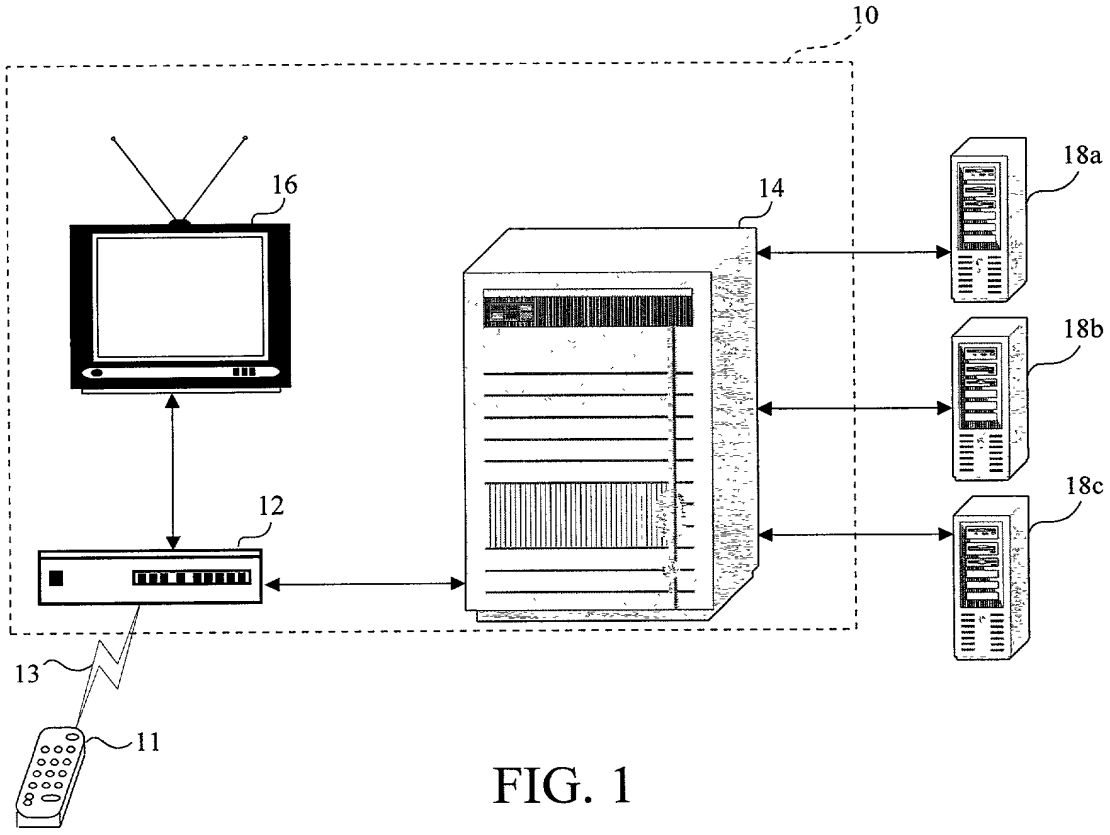

FIG. 1

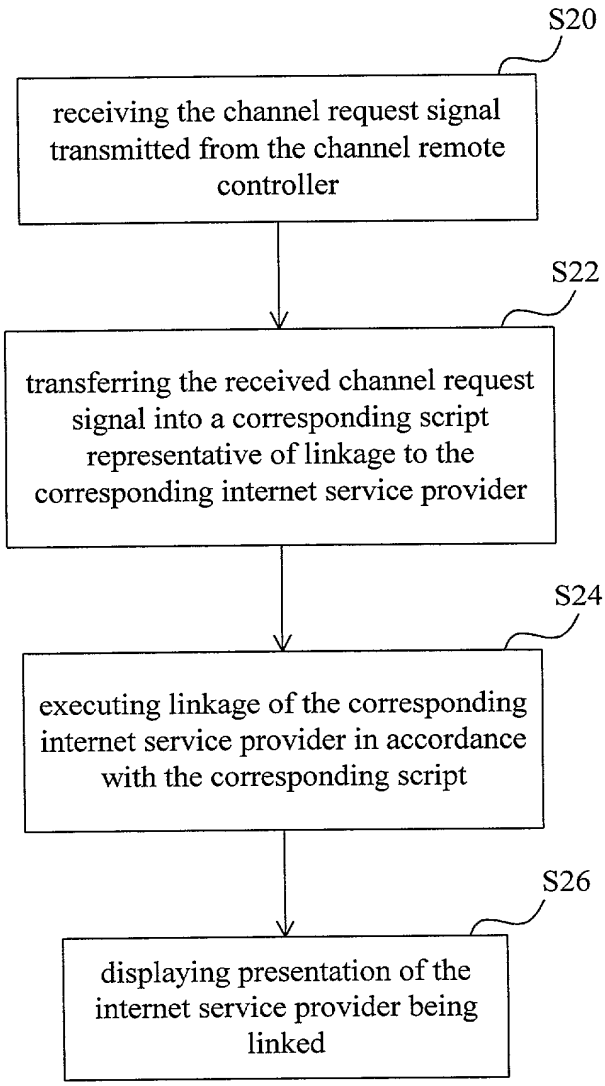

S20
receiving the channel request signal transmitted from the channel remote controller
S22
transferring the received channel request signal into a corresponding script representative of linkage to the corresponding internet service provider
S24
executing linkage of the corresponding internet service provider in accordance with the corresponding script
S26
displaying presentation of the internet service provider being linked

FIG.2